Dear Chair

Alcohol Policies and Legislation Review

RE: NORTHERN TERRITORY ALCOHOL POLICIES AND LEGISLATION REVIEW 2017

Glen Helen Homestead Lodge is a small hospitality business in remote Central Australia, operating liquor licence 81202714

We have a great many regulatory responsibilities associated with our business and would like to propose that the retention of our liquor licence should not require the payment of a significant annual fee, as has been suggested as a possibility for introduction by this Review

This would impose another penalty on our already overloaded regulation and fee requirements for our small Tourism Business.

Liquor fees are an additional expenditure item which should not be imposed on those trying to maintain their existing licensed businesses. Surely the GST payments already cover the liquor fees.

Yours Sincerely

Colin O'Brien

Licensee.
